

Unit 8 Study Guide
Mr. Searcy

The _____ upheld the 15th amendment by banning literacy tests as a prerequisite for voter registration.

Martin Luther King, Jr.'s "I have a Dream" speech was a highlight of what event in our nation's capital?

At what university were four students killed by the National Guard protesting the invasion of Cambodia during the Vietnam War?

The policy in which the US vowed to aid countries trying to resist the spread of Communism was called the _____.

This cartoon was most likely referencing which monumental Supreme Court case?

What was the Marshall Plan intended to do?

T / F – The policy of Containment was successful in the Korean War.

The Camp David Accords negotiated by President Jimmy Carter were important because they reduced tensions in what part of the world?

What was the primary reason Richard Nixon resigned his presidency?

Increased suburban growth was experienced as a result of what congressional act designed to enhance the transportation infrastructure of the United States?

Korea remains divided at the 38th parallel, East and West Berlin are split by a wall, and Fidel Castro leading a communist revolution in Cuba are conflicts that occurred during what period in United States foreign policy?

The high birth rate that followed WWII resulted in this nickname being given to the generation born between 1946-1964.

The theory that "if one country fell to communism, all of its neighbors would fall too" was called what?

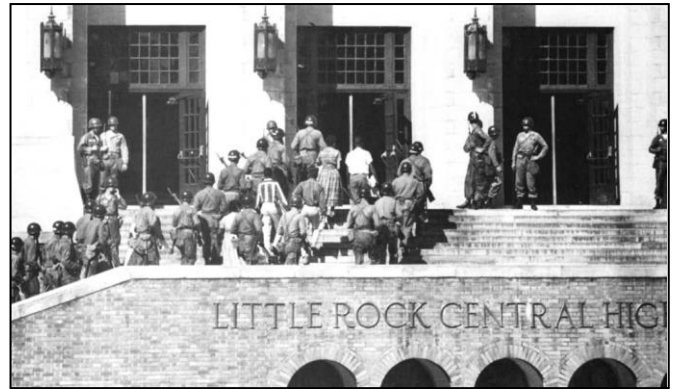

In response to the formation of NATO, the Soviet Union did what?

Who is most likely the deliverer of the following quote? "In my opinion, the State Department, which is one of the most important government departments, is thoroughly infested with Communists."

The north and south being divided by the 38th parallel was the result of what war?

The Vietnam War became increasingly unpopular as the media showed images (like the one to the right) of screaming children fleeing a chemical bombing of which flammable gelatin? _____

The _____ brought the US and the Soviet Union to the brink of nuclear war during JFK's presidency?

Unit 8 Study Guide
Mr. Searcy

In 1954, the Supreme Court ruled in Brown v. Board of Education that _____ was no longer legal in public schools.

T / F – The governor of Arkansas called in the national guard to block the students’ entry in response to the Brown v Board of Education ruling.

Nonviolent protest was the policy of what famous civil rights leader and the organization he founded used to achieve victory in the struggle for civil rights?

T / F - After watching television segregation coverage of the Birmingham police’s brutal tactics used against protesters, even opponents of the civil rights movement were shocked by the police violence

Early in their existence, SNCC’s black power movement taught that African Americans should use what type of protests to bring about change?

CORE, SNCC, & the SCLC were examples of _____.

The devastating environmental effects of pesticides was exposed in Rachel Carson’s best-selling book _____.

Cuba becoming a communist-controlled dictatorship describes the situation following what Cuban civil conflict in 1959?

“Landing a man on the moon within the decade” was the commitment of President Kennedy, NASA, and the nation following what Soviet interstellar act?

T / F - Roe v Wade was a major concern to feminists and members of NOW.

Betty Freidan stated being bored by domestic responsibilities was a common complaint of what segment of the U.S. society?

The Cuban missile crisis of 1962 came to an end when _____.

After WWII, suburbs featuring affordable homes were called _____.

Cesar Chavez and the United Farm Workers Union would have been most concerned with the plight of which segment of the U.S. labor force?

_____, a program to benefit lower-income, elderly person resulted from President Johnson’s Great Society.

_____ was the first Soviet artificial satellite launched into space.

This picture represents the kind of 20th century discrimination that was eliminated by which Congressional action? _____

Unit 8 Study Guide
Mr. Searcy

_____, assassinated on June 5, 1968, was a major cause to the riots during the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

The Supreme Court case decision said that affirmative actions quotas could be used in college admissions was _____.

The US providing medical treatment for the Shah of Iran provoked Iran to do what in the late 1970's? _____

The Iran-Contra Scandal was a secret program in which the United States would send military aid to Iran and then Iran would send aid to anti communist rebels/drug smugglers in which country? _____

The Supreme Court ruling establishing that anyone arrested of a crime must be informed of their right to an attorney and their right to remain silent was _____.

Which president is famous for saying the following: "I am not a crook." _____

Wiretapping of phone conversations was center in what scandal in American politics? _____

Ronald Reagan's "trickle-down" economics plan became known as _____.